DESERT ROSE BAND SIGNS WITH REFUGEE MANAGEMENT, INC.

West Coast country kingpin the DESERT ROSE BAND has inked an exclusive personal management agreement with Cameron Randle, Stuart H. Dill and Judy Seale of REFUGEE MANAGEMENT, INC.

The Nashville-based firm also represents Texas Tornados, Holly Dunn, The Forester Sisters, Minnie Pearl, Freddy Fender and Flaco Jimenez, among others.

"As we enter our seventh year together, the Desert Rose Band is now, more than ever, fully committed to writing and playing great country music," said Desert Rose frontman and Rock'n Roll Hall of Famer Chris Hillman. "With Refugee Management, Inc. at the helm and a new lead guitar player, the future looks brighter than ever."

The group recently garnered a nomination for Best Country Artist from the first annual L.A. Music Awards, slated for Wednesday, February 19th, at the Santa Monica Civic Center.
